PERSONAL

MR. and MRS. CHARLES SPOHN expect to leave for San Francisco this week on account of the high altitude affecting the latter's health. ROBERT RICHARDS, deputy attorney general, returned to Carson City Sunday morning after arguing in the district court for a rehearing of the Mahoney case against the Nevada Industrial Commission.

VICTOR BARNDT, VICTOR BARNDT, JR., and JOHN LAWTON BUTLER motored up Sunday from their home in Berkeley and left this afternoon for Hot Creek.

MRS. J. W. STEWART has returned from the upper end of the state where she completed her official visit to the Order of the Eastern Star at Winnemucca.

MRS. OSCAR BRIDGEMAN who has been assisting Mrs. Frank Meyer during the illness of her husband, returned to her home in Reno this morning.

MISS ANNA MURPHY, chief operator of the telephone company, returned Saturday night from Los Angeles where she was called by the illness of her mother. Mrs. Murphy is now convalescent and her complete recovery is a matter of time.

A. H. WESTALL, superintendent of the Belcher and Belcher Extension companies was in town today for the first time in a week owing to an attack of the grippe which confined him to his home on the Divide. Mrs. Westall is suffering from the same malady.

MISS BELLE GAVIN returned Saturday night from the east where she was visiting her daughter in law and daughter.

JOE McEACHEN, the hardware man came in from Reno this evening to visit the trade.

MRS. BERT McFADDEN is back from San Francisco where she was visiting with former school chums for the past two weeks.

E. P. ESSER of the Stinger of News, left this morning for a visit to his family in Carson City.

MISS MABEL J. GREY was a northbound passenger this morning. JAMES DAVIS, the mining engineer, left today for San Francisco.

E. W. BLAIR and JUDGE I. G. THOMPSON, were passengers yesterday for San Francisco where they expect to spend a week.

W. R. McFADDEN, auditor of the State Industrial Commission, arrived from the south Saturday evening. JUDGE MARK R. AVERILL was a passenger for Carson City Sunday morning.

AMUSEMENTS
PYTHIANS ARRANGE A BIG SOCIAL EVENT

Members of the Pythian Sisters and Knights of Pythias are requested to attend the meeting in another column. Tonight the members of both orders will have their social reunion. Each is requested to bring a friend to enjoy the evening at the I. O. O. F. hall. Cards and the best of music will entertain and dancing by the powers of the mystic maze.

Light refreshments will be served. A splendid time assured to those who attend. It will be open house, no charge for admission.

Both in the Pythian party in 1912 Senator Harding's campaign for the most part is in the hands of men affiliated with local party organizations.

While there are no distinct sets of Wood candidates for delegates in the two prominent districts, the candidates in these districts are pledged to Harding as first choice and to Wood as second choice. In the three Cleveland districts the Harding candidates are pledged to Senator Hiram Johnson, as second choice while Wood delegates are pledged to James R. Garfield as second choice.

NEVADA SENDS TWELVE DELEGATES TO CHICAGO

The Republican state convention here nominated George Wingfield for member of the national committee and elected 12 delegates and 12 alternates to attend the national convention in Chicago June 8. Each of the delegates will have one-half vote in the convention.

Washoe county received three delegates and three alternates. The delegates are: Washoe county, F. H. Norcross, Sam Platt, Della Boyd; Lyon, Joe Wilson; Pershing, H. J. Morrish; Storey, Whitman Symmes; White Pine, Arthur Smith; Nye, W. W. Booth, Humboldt, F. J. Putton; Elko, B. F. Currier; Churchill, W. A. Koshlitz; and Clark, E. W. Griffith.

The alternates are: Mineral, F. B. Balar; Lyon, Harriet S. Gelder; Nye, Hinch H. Brown; Churchill, C. W. Foster; Humboldt, L. G. Taylor; White Pine, J. H. Fulmer; Elko, W. S. Dupont; Washoe, George Springmeyer; Mrs. F. Humphrey and E. H. Reemer; Pershing, A. L. Bachrodt; Clark, Walter Bracking.

The convention was organized and controlled by the delegates from outside counties.

The resolutions committee, of which Brewster Adams was chairman submitted the following resolutions to the convention:

"We, the committee on resolutions of the Republican state convention of the state of Nevada, in session assembled on this the twenty-fourth day of April, 1920, beg leave to present to the members of the convention the following resolution:

"Whereas, the Republicans of the state of Nevada, the most loyal of all great Americans, have suffered for years that seem incredible through the inefficiency, mismanagement and arbitrary autocracy of the party in power, feel that the hour has come when loyal, red-blooded Americans who love America as the foremost country of the world, shall rise in the might and with all Democratic stains from the banner of our country and place a true and loyal Republican, a man of the people and for the people in the presidential chair at Washington.

"Therefore, be it further resolved, that we affirm first, last and always our belief in the United States of America, in the rights of all the people to enjoy life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness as guaranteed by the Constitution, and the responsibility of all citizens to respect, preserve and sustain that Constitution.

"Be it further resolved that we affirm our belief in justice to all, without distinction of class, race or creed; that we believe in the encouragement of industry to the mutual advantage of both capital and labor; the upbuilding of society and the full protection of all American principles; for economy in government, efficiency in administration, and for the elimination of waste; the education of youth, the rights of women and welfare of children.

"Be it further resolved that the delegates elected at this convention to be held in Chicago on the eighth day of June, 1920, be instructed for no particular candidate but to vote for that candidate who will carry the true principles of Americanism as espoused by the Republican party."

Mizpah Lodge No. 25, Knights of Pythias will hold their bi-monthly social meeting this evening at Odd Fellows hall. All members of the order and the members of the Pythian Sisters are requested to be present.

Cards, music and dancing will be the order of the evening. Meeting will be an open one. Don't forget to bring your friend with you.
